

Do you need training...to run your groups effectively?

ASKRUS

The Really Useful
Stuff Handbook

Free Training

for community groups &
voluntary organisations

February – March 2011

Training workshops on:

- Getting Funding for your group
- Raising Funds for your group
- Promoting your group
- Management committee and trustees
(including recruiting, retaining, roles and responsibilities)

Straightforward and practical half-day training sessions are being offered to support the Really Useful Stuff Handbook. The workshops are aimed at people running or working for community groups or voluntary organisations (this could include paid staff, volunteers, trustees or those who serve on management committees or are involved in community projects).

To find out more information and to book on a workshop, visit www.lincolnshire.gov.uk/rustraining, phone 01522 550 524, or email reallyusefulstuff@lincolnshire.gov.uk, no later than two weeks before the start of the training. We will be in touch with you to confirm your place.
